

Child Protection

At Stirling Knights Basketball Club we want children and young people to stay safe and have fun while taking part in basketball. Everyone involved in Stirling Knights Basketball Club has a duty to safeguard the welfare of all children in their care.

Stirling Knights Basketball Club has made a commitment to promote safe practice and to protect children from harm, abuse and exploitation. This duty extends to the prevention of physical, sexual or emotional abuse of any child and shall be applied regardless of a child's gender, race, religion, sexuality or disability.

You can find out more about our child protection policy [insert link to child protection policy] or our code of conduct [insert link to code of conduct] or take a note of relevant contacts below should you need them. For a more detailed pack on Stirling Knights Basketball Club's procedures with regards to Child Protection on recruitment and training of staff and disciplinary procedures, please contact our Child Protection Officer.

Our lead Child Protection Officer at Stirling Knights Basketball Club is:

Name of Child Protection Officer: Jen Sullivan

Email: loujan27@yahoo.co.uk

Telephone:

Mobile: 07889 387000

For general help and advice you can contact:

Safeguarding in Sport: www.safeguardingsport.org.uk

NEED HELP NOW?

Where a child's immediate safety is at risk contact the local police or social work department for advice. Links to local services can be found here

<http://www.children1st.org.uk/services/131/emergency-numbers>